

TREGO COUNTY TRACINGS.

Served up by the "World's" Rustling Reporters.

COLLYER CAWINGS.

COLLYER, Sept. 5.

Breezy to-day.
Corn is most all cut.
Melon season is about over.
Mr. Ed. Power is here, visiting his parents.
The G. A. R.'s held their regular meeting Saturday.
Temp Smith was holding down his claim last week.
F. C. Swiggett returned from Wa-Keeney Tuesday.
A load of young folks took a watermelon hunt Sunday.
Mr. McCoy, one of Wa-Keeney's land agents, is in our city to-day.
Mrs. Lindsey came down from Fremont Saturday, and returned Sunday.
J. H. Siebert is here to-day, finishing the painting in the school house.
The Catholics celebrated mass Sunday. A very large crowd was in attendance.
Bessie Siebert spent last Wednesday and Thursday with her Collyer friends.
Aaron Deardorff has been hauling his sorghum to Quinter, to a sorghum press.
There was a social "hop" at the hotel last Thursday evening. A jolly time was had.

Miss Hunt, sister of Mrs. G. W. Kessler, left Sunday evening for her home, in Dixon, Ill.
Johnie Ashcroft returned to his home, on the Saline, Saturday, after two weeks of pumping.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Siebert and daughter, Bessie, were the guests of G. W. Kessler's, Sunday.
Miss Happy Roberts entertained a number of her associates Sunday. All had a pleasant time.
Last evening's passenger train was behind time, owing to some portion of the engine giving out.
A couple got lost last Thursday night, returning home from the party. We wonder if they camped out 'till morning.
The Wa-Keeney photographer took photographs of Larry LeBron's and J. H. Siebert's property, in this neighborhood, last Monday.

The Fairview boys played the Collyer boys a game of base ball Thursday. The Fairview boys won the game. Our boys go there to-morrow to try it again.
Fred Cartwright and Bert McMillen returned Thursday evening from Denver. They say they had a grand time; so grand that Bert don't like butchering any more, and says he's going to quit it soon.
The farmers in this vicinity have been preaching the past week. F. C. Swiggett had 150 1/2 bushels of grain off 15 acres of ground. Pretty well, we think, considering the season. Wheat, oats and rye are the principal cereals.

We noticed J. H. Smith in town Saturday. Mr. Smith has been over at Fremont the most of the summer, and is quite a stranger in town. He reports things lively there, and crops much better and heavier than through these parts.
W. C.
ADAIR ADVICES.
ADAIR, TREGO Co., Sept. 5, 1888.
Mr. Andy Belding has gone east.
Miss Ollie Douglas has gone to Salina.
Say, ain't you tired of cutting corn fodder?
A dance at Hutchinson's sheep ranch to-night.
Robt. Musgrave was seen near the county line on Sunday.
Chas. Ridgway was eating watermelon up this way on Sunday.
Wheat sowing is now in full force. A larger acreage than ever will be put in.
Everybody knows of the Adair ranch being sold, so we will say nothing about it.
Quill Marquand and his sister, Miss Ella, attended church here last Sabbath.
A number of our people were seen perambulating the streets of our county capital on Saturday.
Miss Jessie Clark expects to take up her residence in Ellis this week. She may possibly be gone all winter.
Issac Barnes expects to start on Monday for a visit to his father's, in south-eastern Kansas, and to return in February.

Last Sunday Rev. Edie preached a very interesting sermon. An effort will be made next Sunday to organize a Sunday school.
Question: How can two young men take two young ladies to a dance in a one-seated covered carriage, all going at the same time, and the young men supposed to ride, too? Must have been a wide-tracked rig.
Neal Adair, who has been under the doctor's care in Wa-Keeney for several weeks, is reported to be better, and will return to Ellis this week. A speedy recovery of his health is the earnest wish of his many friends.
School commenced in District 31 on Monday.

The school house is amply able to accommodate six or seven times as many pupils as are enrolled, and the teacher informs us he has spare time, but Ed. Scrivens objected to a fourteen-year-old boy attending from another district.
The highest price paid in Ellis this year for wheat was paid to Alex. S. Barnes. This is said to be the best wheat so far brought in. Mr. Barnes is one of the oldest settlers in this vicinity, and this goes to substantiate what we have remarked a number of times before, that Adair is first and foremost in everything. Paste this in your hat.

Mr. John B. Ruppe has been sick for a month or two, but recovered sufficiently to start on Thursday last for his father's place, in Missouri. On Saturday Mr. Shaw, who had worked for him, and accompanied him on his journey, came back and said he had left Mr. Ruppe and family at Victoria, and that a horse and two yearling colts had gotten away. Since then Mr. Brabb, Mr. Ruppe's father-in-law, and his sons have scoured the country, but not a trace of the missing horses has yet been found.

WHEAT PRODUCTIONS.
Jesse Cockrell, 75 bushels; Aaron Cockrell, 274; Sam Baird, 698; F. P. Clark, 127; T. S. Howe, 160; A. S. Barnes, 193. Besides these are the oats and flax. Of course, there are more than these, but these are the figures obtained from the steam threshers. It will be remembered that another thresher was in this neighborhood, too.

LOONTJICKE.
BANNER BUGGLINGS.
BANNER, TREGO Co., Sept. 3.
School commenced this morning. W. A. Neel is teacher. This is his third year in this district.

D. F. Matter and Daniel and Barney McManus were last week hauling wheat to Wa-Keeney and selling it for 50 cents per bushel.
Leonard Purinton had so improved that A. B. Baker and Mrs. Purinton brought him home on a bed in a spring wagon on Sunday.

John Dalby and Frank Taylor started to Nebraska last week to hunt work. Their crops of corn failed, and they got uneasy about the support of their families, and they "lit out" for work.

J. C. Brown and C. F. Hawkes made a trip to Ellis to mill last week, and we begin to think the merchants and business men generally of Wa-Keeney do not want a mill at Wa-Keeney. We grangers want one at Wa-Keeney or some other place nearer by than Ellis.

C. L. Johnson, of this vicinity, after a long siege of typhoid fever, died near Hoxie on August 26, where he had been at work. Mr. Johnson was highly respected by all who knew him. He leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss. They have the sincere sympathy of this entire community in this their great sorrow.

The funeral of Alfred Force was preached last Sabbath at Banner by Rev. J. C. Elliott, from Psalms 61, 2nd verse. Alfred Force and C. L. Johnson came to Kansas together from Iowa, in 1886, and each had secured a homestead in this vicinity. In the early part of this summer they started out together to seek work, which they found on a farm near Hoxie. After working for some time, they were both taken down with typhoid fever, and both died. They were both men who were held in high esteem by this entire community. In life we are in the midst of death.

J. CANTREL B.
Commissioners' Proceedings.
WA-KEENEY, Sept. 1, 1888.
Commissioners met to-day, and provided for court house claims for month of August. Total amount provided for was two thousand, seven hundred and thirty-nine dollars and seventeen cents.
Board adjourned.
Attest: C. A. HOAR,
County Clerk.

Mrs. Jacob Scodius, while visiting with her father-in-law, at Gaynor City, Mo., was taken very sick with Cholera Morbus. A physician was sent for, but as the doctor was not at home, Mr. S. E. Wible, a merchant of Gaynor City, handed the husband of the sick lady a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and asked him to try that, and if it did not cure, he need not pay for it, but it did the work, and before returning to their home in Springfield, Ohio, they called and procured another bottle. Uncle John Scodius says he will never be without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Sold by
